KUNSTen OP STRAAT in the neighborhood

During the weekend of May 8th and 9th the Festival BUITENKANS will take place in Enschede, and is the official start to a summer of KUNSTen OP STRAAT. Again this year a whole new experience awaits us all, outside on the streets. Dance, mime, theater, stand-up comedy and more. KUNSTen OP STRAAT is the largest Street Festival in The Netherlands. This relay of quality international street theater will pass through more than 15 towns in Overijssel, from Zwolle to Dinkelland. The first Street Musical in The Netherlands will travel with the festival. In this musical we follow the historical folk hero Daendels, who stood up for the local populations in eastern Netherlands. The show is full of adventure, humor and action. An naturally it includes the battle song. Do you want to know when KUNSTen OP STRAAT is in your neighborhood? Click here for a complete list of the dates and locations.

Dance: with flowing steps

Street artists have mastered all the various genres of theater. This year we are going to focus more on the Art of Dance. People have been dancing since the beginning of time as witnessed by drawings on cave walls. During Middle Ages the churches in Europe considered dancing indecent and prohibited it. In the Renaissance dancing made a come back and since then has been a popular hobby and art form. Read more >>

BUITENKANS talent hunt !

More than 75 street performers have registered and will grab their chance during BUITENKANS. At this time the organizers are selecting the best 50 acts. Young and new talent will show what they are made of, and experience performers will be presenting new works to an enthusiastic audience. During this Talent Hunt the acts will be competing for the valuable prize of the chance to perform at other summer festivals. The 20 jury members have been selected including Johan Vanhie from Belgium, Ute Classen from Germany and Pilar Gutierrez from Spain. Together with the audience they will judge all 50 acts. ## Tip: Theatergroep Smoesjes

Choosing amongst the 50 BUITENKANS acts is difficult. But you will need a good excuse to not come admire these two ladies. They are young and fresh, enjoy camping, fantasizing and creating. The show from Theatergroep Smoesjes is especially suited for young viewers. .
